

Let's leave the roads in OUR hands; not the government. Sam is a good man and I have the confidence in him but what follows might be completely another story. Tried to pass on to the roads address; it was returned. The committee did a good job on the report; I'm impressed that a bunch of 'country people' could do such a good job; just kidding of course.

Bob Potts